Yellow warning
Rain

Between 12:00 Thu 26 Oct 2023 and
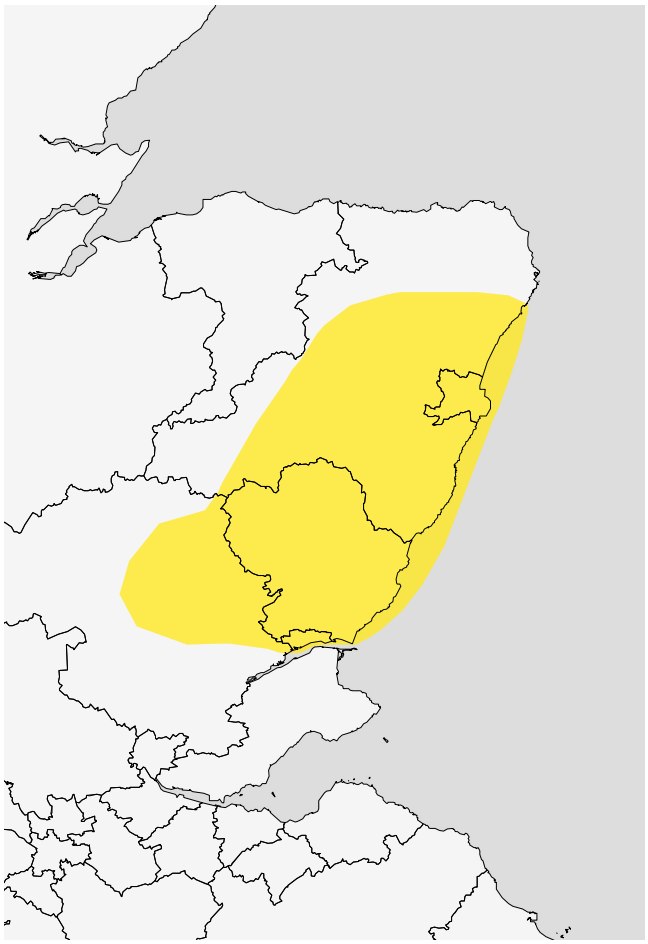
12:00 Sat 28 Oct 2023



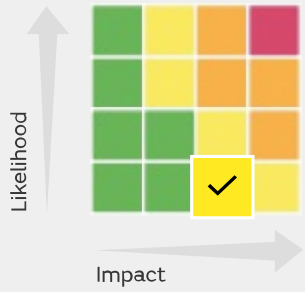
Persistent and occasionally heavy rain may lead to some flooding and transport disruption in places.

What to expect

- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures, and may lead to delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- There is a small chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Where flooding occurs, there is a chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services

Further details

Further rain is expected across eastern Scotland between Thursday and Saturday. Accumulations over the three days will widely be around 20 to 30 mm with 50 to 70 mm likely to fall over higher ground where there is a lower probability of 80-100 mm in a few locations. Rain will be much less heavy than last week but falling on to already saturated ground may lead to some flooding in places.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
